Honour of

Missing & Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls

The Native Women Association of the NWT is inviting all public to attend the unveiling of the Beaded Hearts Tapestry on January 22, 2018.

The Beaded Hearts Tapestry has been created to pay respect to Missing & Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls and to acknowledge the families who have experienced great loss.

Each heart was beaded and sewn by individuals around the territory to commemorate the Missing & Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls.
